13 v.

14 ISIAH CATRELL BROWN,
15

Defendant.

Case No. 2:15-cr-00304-JCM-NJK

STIPULATION TO CONTINUE
REVOCATION HEARING
(Second Request)

16
17 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between Jason M. Frierson, 18 United States Attorney, and Melanee Smith, Assistant United States Attorney, counsel for the 19 United States of America, and Rene L. Valladares, Federal Public Defender, and Rick Mula,
20 Assistant Federal Public Defender, counsel for Isiah Catrell Brown, that the Revocation Hearing
21 currently scheduled on July 8, 2024, be vacated and continued to a date and time convenient to 22 the Court, but no sooner than one hundred twenty (120) days.

23 This Stipulation is entered into for the following reasons:

- 24 1. United States Probation Officer Kamuela Kapanui filed a petition on December
25 8, 2023, seeking revocation of Mr. Brown's supervised release. (ECF No. 43.)
26 2. The Court held an initial appearance on December 27, 2023. (ECF No. 46.)

1           3.       The parties conferred and filed a stipulation on January 5, 2024, to continue the
2       revocation hearing for six months, in order to allow Mr. Brown the opportunity to take
3       advantage of resources available to him through probation, such as substance abuse treatment.
4       (ECF No. 53.)

5           4.       The court granted the continuance and re-set the revocation hearing for July 8,
6       2024. (ECF No. 54.)

7           5.       Defense counsel conferred with Officer Kapanui again on June 26, 2024. The 8       parties agree that the halfway house would be a more suitable residence than Mr. Brown's
9       current residence. The parties also agree that the pending petition should not yet be dismissed.

10          6.       If Mr. Brown comes into compliance and maintains compliance with his 11       supervised release requirements during the 120-day period contemplated in this stipulation,
12       then the Government agrees to dismiss the petition.

13          7.       If Mr. Brown does not come into compliance and maintain compliance with his 14       supervised release requirements, then the parties will request that the Court advance the 15       revocation hearing.

16               This is the second request for a continuance of the revocation hearing.

17               DATED this 1st day of July, 2024.
